Our Out-of-School Time Program provides free, quality programming at 18 locations throughout Pittsburgh and Allegheny County. Kids will enjoy sports and games, arts & crafts, frequent field trips to awesome locations throughout the city or creative adventures on-site and monthly community celebrations! Not only will BJWL keep kids safe in a nurturing, fun environment, but we'll inspire learning through book clubs, hands-on science activities, math games and activities that encourage good decision-making and emotional management. Our program primarily serves children ages 5-13, but youth up to the age of 17 are welcome to join the program, enjoy free meals, participate in the activities or just hang out in a safe place and have fun!
